President's Letter

I never thought this day would happen so a big thank you to the Show Committee for inviting me to be President of the 136th Sturton and Stow Show.

Show Day is perhaps the major annual gathering of the village when people who have left the village return with the many other visitors to marvel at the skills of the exhibitors and probably think, wish I could do that, I'll have a go next year; some probably think 'that judge should be sacked'!!! Why not have a go? If you haven't showed before there's a 5 step guide to entering the show published in this schedule.

Over the years my involvement with the Show has been 'on and off'. My dad was a farmer so it was a case of going to the Ploughing Match on Show morning to see if he had won and then looking around the Show in the afternoon followed by the fun fair which was on the field which is now The Close opposite the Village Hall. As a child I would enter the school classes, I don't think I ever won anything, a good job I was brought up to 'It's not the winning it's the taking part'. My recent taking part has been entering the Jams and Preserves sections, Apple Pies, Baked Egg Custards and Inside Produce. I have been successful with some of my entries so if I can do it I'm sure you can, why not give it a go this year?

Our Annual Show, now in it's 136th year, gets better each year so it was with a feeling of great pride and pleasure that I accepted the invitation to be President for 2024 and in this capacity I would like to thank the Committee and all other helpers who put in a lot of hard work to ensure the Show's continued success; last but not least, I thank the exhibitors, without them there wouldn't be a Show.

I look forward to seeing old friends and new faces at this year's show and thank you all for your continued support to the show.

Pam Rose

Test Piece for Handwriting Classes
(Classes 179 & 180)
The Hedgehog by Edith King

The hedgehog is a little beast
Who likes a quiet wood,
Where he can feed his family
On proper hedgehog food.

He has a funny little snout
That's rather like a pig's,
With which he smells, like us, of course,
But also runts and digs.

He wears the queerest prickle coat,
Instead of hair or fur,
And only has to curl himself
To bristle like a burr.

He does not need to battle with
Or run away from foes,
His coat does all the work for him.
It pricks them on the nose.

Test Piece for Handwriting Classes
(Classes 177 & 178)
Mice by Rose Flyman

I think mice
Are rather nice.
Their tails are long,
Their faces small,
They haven't any
Chins at all.
Their ears are pink,
Their teeth are white,
They run about,
The house at night.
They nibble things
They shouldn't touch
And no one seems
To like them much.

But I think mice
Are nice.

The 5 Step Guide to entering the show

1

Read through the class descriptions and show rules and select the class you would like to enter. For example, you might be a keen baker (see domestic cookery pg 14) or photographer (pg 18) or maybe you're growing a huge marrow! (class 18-21, pg 10). You can enter as many different classes as you like, but some classes have maximum entries per class, and this will be shown in the schedule.

2

Go to the form on pg 21 of the schedule, or you can use the form on the website (www.sturtonandstowshow.com). Copies are also available from the Show secretary. Enter details for the class number you are entering, and entry fee (30p per entry, children enter free). Please include a total of all entry fees in the space below the table.

3

Entry forms must be sent either by post (address on form) or email (sturtonandstowshow@gmail.com) to arrive by Thursday 3rd October. Entry forms can also be submitted, and fees paid, in person 6.30pm-8.30pm on Wednesday 2nd October (Sturton by Stow Village Hall). Sorry, no entry forms can be accepted on the day of the show!!!

4

The next step is to place your exhibit in the correct position at the show. This can be done the evening before (8.00pm-8.45pm) or the morning of the show (7.30-10am). You will need your entry card, which was given to you if you entered in person at the village hall, or it can be collected at the show venue if you entered by email or post. If entering a children's class that stipulates "age to be stated" please add the child's age to the entry card. There will be stewards and committee members around to help with this. Remember to double check the rules for your class, as any entries not compliant cannot be judged!

5

Sit back relax and enjoy the show. Judging will have been completed by the time the show opens at 1.30pm, so you can return to your entry to see how you, and friends and family, have done. Prize cards will be placed by your entry as applicable. Prizes can be collected from show at 4.30pm (please bring your prize cards).
